QUADS CRACKED & OMAHA BAD BEAT JACKPOT QUALIFICATION:

This is paid when a player makes Four of a Kind or better and loses, subject to the following rules:

- 1) The winning and losing players must use both cards from their hands. When four of a kind, the player must have a pocket pair.
- 2) Only the hand winner and the second best hand may be considered for Quads Cracked.

GENERAL BAD BEAT & SPECIAL HAND JACKPOT RULES:

The game being played must be either Texas Hold'em or Omaha. The hand must meet all eligibility requirements.

- 1) The hand must reach the flop.
- 2) At least four players must have been dealt cards.
- 3) At least two players must reach showdown.
- 4) All qualifying hands must be properly displayed face up on the table during showdown.
- 5) The players must use their best five card hands for consideration.

At all times, the Poker Dealer and Poker Supervisor involved will consider the integrity of the game and adherence to these rules their highest priority. The decision of the Poker Supervisor or Poker Manager is final. Additional rules apply; see official approved rules for details.
